

Daily Prayer

Monday, March 8, 2010

Scripture Reading :

"I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never stop doing good to them, and I will inspire them to fear me, so that they will never turn away from me."

(Jeremiah 32:40, NIV)

Parent's Prayer:

Dear Heavenly Father,
We thank you for your everlasting covenant with us and the promise that you will never stop doing good to us. Lord, even in the midst of great trials in our lives, help us to never forget all that you have blessed us with. Help us to remember the great things you have done for us and for our child(ren). We thank you that Proverbs teaches us that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of all wisdom. Therefore, we pray that you would teach us what it is to fear you so that we can walk in the path of wisdom and gratefulness to you, regardless of our circumstances. Lord, in this day we choose to offer you a sacrifice of praise. You are truly worthy of praise and honor. May we never forget all of your benefits.
In Jesus' Name,
Amen

Family/Friend's Prayer:

Dear Heavenly Father,
I thank you for your everlasting covenant with the _____ family and the promise that you will never stop doing good to them. Lord, even in the midst of great trials in their lives, help them to never forget all that you have blessed them with. Help them to remember the great things you have done for them and for their child(ren). I thank you that Proverbs teaches that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of all wisdom. Therefore, I pray that you would teach them what it is to fear you so that they can walk in the path of wisdom and gratefulness to you, regardless of their circumstances. Lord, in this day I ask that you would help them to offer you a sacrifice of praise. You are truly worthy of praise and honor. May none of us ever forget all of your benefits.
In Jesus' Name,
Amen

