

Scripture Reading :

“As a shepherd looks after his scattered flock when he is with them, so will I look after my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness”
(Ezekiel 34:12, NIV).

Parent's Prayer:

Dear Lord,
What a comfort it is to know that you have said that we will never be alone even in our darkest hour. Thank you, Lord, that you have promised to rescue us from the clouds and darkness that attempt to invade our lives. Father, we thank you that in the times when we feel exposed, uncovered, cold, and alone that you are there to rescue us and to rescue _____. We thank you that you have given your angels charge over us and over _____, and we especially pray that you would keep him/her safe from any danger. We praise you, Lord, that you have promised to look after us with great diligence. Thank you that every day we can rely on you to keep us safely in your care.
In Jesus' Name,
Amen

Family/Friend's Prayer:

Dear Lord,
What a comfort it is to know that you have said that the _____ family will never be alone even in their darkest hour. Thank you, Lord, for promising to rescue them from the clouds and darkness that attempt to invade their lives. Father, I thank you that in the times when they feel exposed, uncovered, cold, and alone that you are there to rescue them and to rescue [child's name]. I thank you that you have given your angels charge over them and over [child's name] and I especially pray that you would keep him/her safe from any danger. I praise you, Lord, that you have promised to look after them with great diligence. Thank you that every day they can rely on you to keep them safely in your care.
In Jesus' Name,
Amen

