Friday

February 17

Dear God,
I thank you that you have promised that you will renew our strength. There are many days, Lord, when we grow weary in all the demands of caring for a child with autism, and are often grieved by the devastating effects of this disease in _____'s life. We need your strength. We need your hope. Help us to be able to soar on wings like eagles and to run and not grow weary in the daily load we carry. Lord, your Word also says that we will find strength in your joy (Nehemiah 8:10). Therefore, we boldly ask that you will shower us with great and unexpected joy, not only so that we can bear the heavy load, but so that we can help _____ and all our children to walk in all the destiny you have for him/her/them!
In Jesus' Name, Amen

Journal Notes:

CHILDREN OF DESTINY

© Children of Destiny, 2012